

Field First Fall Fellowship

Field First LLC is a progressive consulting firm focused on winning elections, passing legislation, and building movements from the bottom up. Field First works with issue-based coalitions, community groups, labor unions, political campaigns, and companies to achieve their goals through a comprehensive approach that focuses on identifying what success is and working backwards to map the path to victory.

Field First is looking to hire a Fall Fellow with a strong interest and passion for the digital media landscape, political campaigns, and Massachusetts politics. The intern will need strong critical thinking skills in order to integrate into our vibrant and broad network of campaigns.

Responsibilities Include:

- Assisting with execution of campaign strategy
- Helping to organize and staff client events and actions
- Organizing data and reporting methods to propel campaigns forward
- Research to help our campaigns make smart decisions
- Creating unique digital and design content
- Assisting our team with day to day operations
- Reaching out to voters and volunteers

The Ideal Candidate Will Have:

- A commitment to progressive causes
- Excellent writing and communication skills
- An aptitude for critical-thinking and problem solving
- Willingness and ability to learn new skills quickly

Dates:

- This fellowship is for the fall semester period, and is flexible based on the applicant's academic or professional schedule.
- Applications are being accepted on a rolling basis.

This position is compensated at $15 per hour for the period of the internship. Interested applicants should submit a resume and cover letter to info@field-first.com.

Diverse candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.
